

Exchange studies at KTH

Sweden

An open, multicultural society with a tradition of welcoming students from all over the world

10.5 million inhabitants

Top-ranked globally when it comes to gender equality

Stockholm
Capital of Sweden and heart of Swedish trade,
business and innovation

One
of the world's safest capitals

Commonly
ranked among the 'best'
and 'most liveable'
cities in the world

KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden's
leading technical university

14,000
students
1,500 PhD
339 professors
5,300 staff

Top 100 in
QS World
University
Rankings

Royal national park

President's office

Sports centre

Student union

KTH Library

Public transport

Courtyard

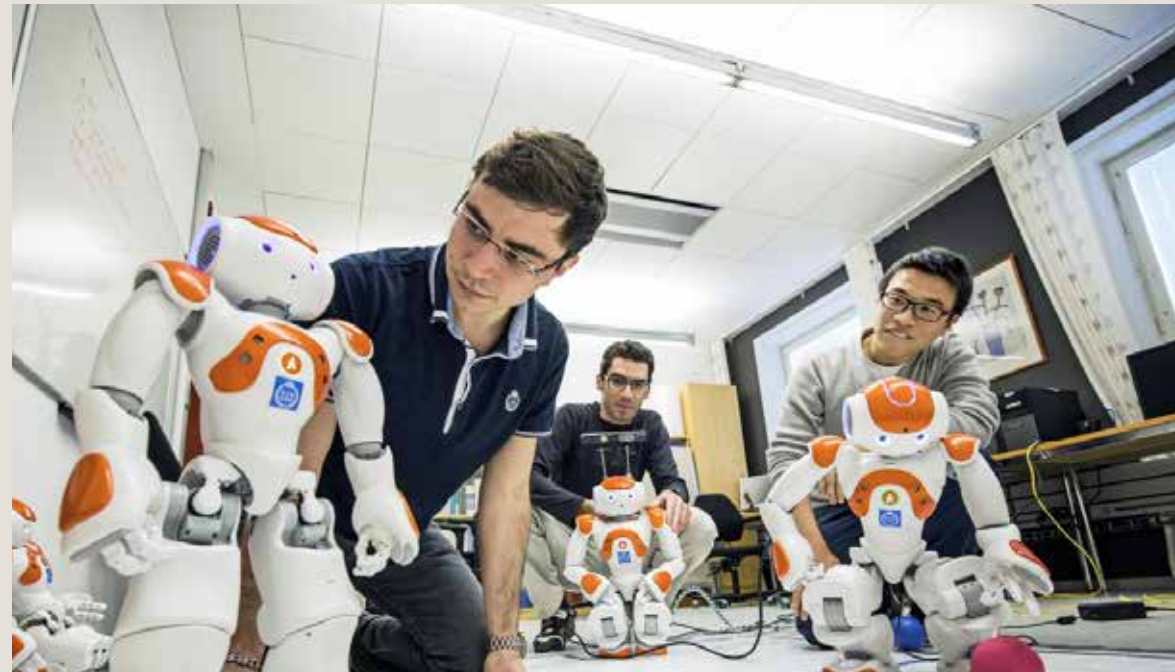

KTH's 5 schools

- Architecture and the Built Environment
- Electrical Engineering and Computer Science
- Engineering Sciences
- Engineering Sciences in Chemistry, Biotechnology and Health
- Industrial Engineering and Management

A range of subjects

- Architecture
- Computer Science
- Chemical Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Engineering Physics
- Machine Learning
- Urban Planning
- Vehicle Engineering
- ...and a lot more

Over 1,000
courses in English on Master's level
to choose from

Autumn semester Late August to mid-January

Spring semester
Mid-January to early June

Each semester is divided into two study periods, mainly consisting of two separate courses.

KTH assist
exchange
students in finding housing

$450-750
Monthly rent varies depending on the
accommodation type.
KTH has student housing in several locations around Stockholm, all within 40 minutes from the main campus.

$950-1250
Monthly student budget
including housing, food,
medical care, insurance,
travel, phone, internet,
hobby and leisure

Extensive Arrival Days activities, introduction weeks, Swedish language classes, counselling for exchange students and activities by the student union

Before
applying all
exchange
students must be selected by their home
university

Application deadlines

15 April
for studies starting in late August (Autumn semester)

15 October
for studies starting in January (Spring semester)

Find all information you need by visiting kth.se/exchange, or by scanning the QR code!

KTHuniversity

kthuniversity

YouTube

@kth