

November 24th

13.00-19.00

F2 and Sing-Sing

Welcome to shape KTH-Sustainability

As well as KTH is striving to become one of Europe's leading technical universities in education and research, it also aims to lead the field in the environment and sustainable development.

As a step forward, KTH-Sustainability (KTH-S) invites you

The Swedish Minister for the Environment will participate. What about you?

to a day that will offer seminars, panel discussions and workshops with several key actors like the Swedish Minister for the Environment; Lena Ek and the President of KTH; Peter Gudmundsson.

Our aim is to inspire and help bring about new ideas and means of working, and to receive your ideas.

Program: 24/11 13.00-19.00 F2

13.00 Introduction: Global challenges and the role of KTH Lena Ek (Swedish Minister of Environment), Peter Gudmundsson (President of KTH)

13.30 Introduction: What should KTH-S do (and not)? Göran Finnveden (Vice-President of KTH), Johan Sundqvist (Environmental Manager), Sverker Sörlin (Prof.)

14.00 Panel discussion: KTH:s role globally - expectations and possibilities? Moderator: Margareta Norell Bergendahl (Vice-President of KTH) Panel: Carl Lindberg (Special Advisor UNESCO), Magnus Enell (Adj. Prof. Senior Advisor Vattenfall), Anna Sander (CEO IQ Samhällsbyggnad), Per Kågesson (Adj. Prof. CTS), Måns Nilsson (Adj. Prof. SEI)

14.30 Workshop: KTH:s role globally

15.15 Coffe break

15.45 Panel discussion: Pathways and factors for success Moderator: Karin Bruce (Tällberg Foundation) Panel: Göran Lindbergh (Prof.), Vladimir Cvetkovic (Prof.) Maria Håkansson (Assis. Prof.) Fredrik Gröndahl (Assos. Prof.) et al.

16.15 Workshop: Pathways and factors for success

17.00 Conclusions

17.10 Networking and matchmaking: New collaborations, who's doing what and things you didn't know about each other. Josefin Wangel (Ph.D Student)

17.30 Buffet and mingle

Click here for registration

the registration will close 15th November

or contact:
sustainability@kth.se