

Amending grades

The 1986 Administrative Procedure Act¹

Section 26 A decision that contains a manifest error in writing, calculation or any other similar oversight by the authority or someone else may be corrected by the authority, which made the decision. Before a correction takes place the authority shall give the parties an opportunity to express themselves on the issue, provided that the matter concerns the exercise of public power in relation to someone and the measure is not unnecessary. Act (1990:456)

The Higher Education Ordinance (1993:100)²

Chapter 6, Section 23. A decision pursuant to Section 26 of the Administrative Procedure Act (1986:223) on rectification of a typographical error, miscalculation or similar oversight concerning a grade shall be made by an examiner. Ordinance (2006:1053).

Reviewing grades

The Higher Education Ordinance (1993:100)

Chapter 6, Section 24. If an examiner finds that a decision on a grade is obviously incorrect owing to new circumstances or for some other reason, he or she shall change the decision if this can be done quickly and easily and if it does not mean lowering the grade. Ordinance (2006:1053).
