Directive 95/46

Rules of data processing

17

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – processing rules

- Certain standards prescribed by the Directive
- Art.6 – data quality
- Art.7 – legitimate processing
- Arts.10-11 – provision of information to data subjects
- Art. 12 – right to access data by data subjects
- Arts.16-17 – confidentiality and security safeguards
- Art.18 – obligation to notify domestic supervisory agency

18

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – quality of data

- Art.6 personal data must be:
 - (a) processed fairly and lawfully;
 - (b) collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a way incompatible with those purposes.
 - (c) adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purposes for which they are collected and/or further processed;
 - (d) accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date: every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that data which are inaccurate or incomplete, having regard to the purposes for which they were collected or for which they are further processed, are erased or rectified;
 - (e) kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the data were collected or for which they are further processed.

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – legitimate processing

- Art.7 personal data may be processed only if:
 - (a) the data subject has unambiguously given his consent; or
 - (b) processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract; or
 - (c) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject; or
 - (d) processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject; or
 - (e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller or in a third party to whom the data are disclosed; or
 - (f) processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by the third party or parties to whom the data are disclosed, except where such interests are overridden by the interests for fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection under Article 1 (1).

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – right of access

- Art.12 a data subject has the right to obtain from the controller:
 - (a) without constraint at reasonable intervals and without excessive delay or expense:
 - confirmation as to whether or not data relating to him are being processed and information at least as to the purposes of the processing, the categories of data concerned, and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data are disclosed,
 - communication to him in an intelligible form of the data undergoing processing and of any available information as to their source,
 - (...)
 - (b) as appropriate the rectification, erasure or blocking of data the processing of which does not comply with the provisions of this Directive, in particular because of the incomplete or inaccurate nature of the data;
 - (c) notification to third parties to whom the data have been disclosed of any rectification, erasure or blocking carried out in compliance with (b), unless this proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – consent

Consent must be freely given, specific and informed

22

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – consent

Types of consent: express or implied

⇒ express: sign, mark/click box etc.
⇒ implied: e.g. signing up to newsletter by simply providing an e-mail address, starting using a service etc.

23

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Directive 95/46 – consent and special categories of data

- Art.8(1) Absolute prohibition of processing of special categories of data = revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade-union membership, and the processing of data concerning health or sex-life
- Unless express, unambiguous consent has been provided to the processing of such data

Directive 95/46 – consent and terms & conditions

The screenshot shows the Facebook 'Terms of Service' page. A red box highlights the section titled 'About Advertisements and Other Commercial Content Served or Enhanced by Facebook'. The text within this box states: 'Our goal is to deliver advertising and other commercial or sponsored content that is valuable to our users and advertisers. In order to help us do that, you agree to the following: 1. We get advertisements to see your name, profile picture, content, and information in connection with commercial, sponsored, or related content (such as a brand you like) served or enhanced by us. This means, for example, that you permit a business or other entity to pay us to display your name and/or profile picture with your content or information, without any compensation to you. If you have selected a specific audience for your content or information, we will respect your choice when we use it. 2. We do not give your content or information to advertisers without your consent. 3. You understand that we may not always identify paid services and communications as such.'

25

Directive 2002/58/EC

- Directive 2002/58/EC concerning the processing of personal data and the protection of privacy in the electronic communications sector (e-Privacy Directive)

26

Directive 2002/58

Art.5(3)

..the use of electronic communications networks to store information or to gain access to information stored in the terminal equipment of a subscriber or user is only allowed on condition that the subscriber or user concerned is provided with clear and comprehensive information in accordance with Directive 95/46/EC, inter alia about the purposes of the processing, and is offered the right to refuse such processing by the data controller.

This shall not prevent any technical storage or access for the sole purpose of carrying out or facilitating the transmission of a communication over an electronic communications network, or as strictly necessary in order to provide an information society service explicitly requested by the subscriber or user.

3. Active choice

Consent must be unambiguous. Therefore the procedure to seek and to give consent must leave no doubt as to the data subject's intention. There are in principle no limits as to the form consent can take. However, for consent to be valid it should be an active indication of the user's wishes. The minimum expression of an indication could be any kind of signal, sufficiently clear to be capable of indicating a data subject's wishes, and to be understandable by the data controller

4. Freely given

Consent can only be valid if the data subject is able to exercise a real choice, and there is no risk of deception, intimidation, coercion or significant negative consequences if he/she does not consent.

Google Spain v AEPD C-131/12

- Personal information lawfully published by a newspaper on their website (La Vanguardia)
- Data appearing in conjunction with an announcement concerning real-estate auction connected with attachment proceedings for debt recovery
- Personal information visible (/searchable) in Google Search results
- Essentially: does the data subject have a right to request erasure of information from the Google Search results?

Concluding remarks

- Is a human right within the EU framework
- Consent – double-edged sword
- Privacy by law vs privacy by design
