

Pedagogical seminars and other ways of discussing teaching and learning

Viggo Kann viggo@kth.se

Goals

- Facilitate discussions on teaching and learning among teachers
- Competence development in teaching and learning

Pedagogical seminars at Nada and CSC

Since about 1990.

About 4 each year.

All teachers are welcome.

Format: 30-45 minutes of presentation, followed by 30-45 minutes of fika and discussion

Organized by educational developers
(until 2012 by Kerstin Frenckner)

Pedagogical seminar topics 2016-2017

- LEQ
- Funka
- Peergrade
- Norm critical pedagogy
- Good intended learning outcomes
- Experiences from William College
- Course evaluation and analysis

PU workshops (by educational developers)

A set of 2.5 hour workshops open to all KTH teachers.

Each workshop is given twice a year.

Topics such as: interactive lectures, flipped classroom, independent students, formative feedback, assessment methods, help your students to study in your course.

Lunch meetings in the teachers' lounge

Teachers' meetings Fridays 12:00-13:00 in the teachers' lounge in KTHB

Informal meetings with different topics

Organized by Fredrik Lundell at Herd (the Higher Education Research and Development unit)

Will start later this spring

Other types of teachers' meetings

- Course analysis group meetings
- Department teachers' meetings
- School teachers' meetings/days
- Programme teachers' meetings/days
- Working meetings for specific tasks
(schemaunderlagsstuga, kursplansstuga)
- Courses in teaching and learning
(högskolepedagogiska kurser)

To discuss in groups

- Which types of teachers' meetings are needed (most)?
- Frequency? Length? When?
- Planned in detail or open?
- Suggest topics and presenters for pedagogical seminars as well as for the next teachers' day!

The notes from each group should be mailed to vjfodor@kth.se
