11. You will now be asked to describe the use of language in the courses (in any cycle/level) that you have been responsible for during 2010.

You may answer the questions for up to five courses. If you have given more than five courses you may choose the five courses with the most students. If you haven’t time to answer for all courses it is OK to choose the three largest courses. You may order the courses in any way.

First give the course codes for these courses. If you have given the same course on several occasions during 2010 you may after the code add the target program, period or other information distinguishing the courses.
