Specific prerequisites

Passed on the course Communicative design 1, AD1KD1.

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The aim of the course is to give the students deeper knowledge of professional communication. On completing the course, the student shall be able to formulate qualified inquiries and examine methods and tools in order to solve problems concerning professional communication. The course is a continuation of Communicative design 1.

Course contents

The course consists of three thematic parts – one based on design, one based on social science and one based on analysis of the surrounding world.

Disposition

The course is organized so that the students work with a project that runs over the whole course period, where all the topics are implemented. During the period there are intensive weeks that deal with specific topics. Furthermore, the students work with special assignments with the aim of implementing the topics individually.

Course literature

To be announced at the introduction to the course.
