Intended learning outcomes

The Fatale literary salon builds upon the idea that the staging of a friendly space creates a particular condition for critical reflection. The form of the conversation, the salon, corresponds to the content, feminist literary spaces. Each salon is structured around a specific theme – A room of one's own, Barricades, The White House, etc – and an attributed text, from which associations and spatial successions unfolds in different directions. Each salon takes place in different spaces related to the current theme.

Course contents

Disposition

The course is structured as a series of literary salons exploring and projecting feminist spaces. Each salon is arranged independently by the participants themselves working in groups of 2-4 students according to proposed themes and readings. The organising group sets everything up including choice of location, dress-code, refreshments etc.
