Course contents

The course is divided into two parts, part 1 and part 2. The course provides an overview of certain central parts of the Swedish legal system and a certain understanding of the function of law in society. The course provides a general legal education and forms a good basis for further studies in law. The course begins with an orientation in the structure of the Swedish legal system and basic sources of law. The various subject areas listed below are dealt with one after the other. As a rule, one lecture with subsequent seminars/group exercises in the same subject area is held per week. At the seminars/group exercises, mainly various application problems will be discussed. The emphasis is on an overview of basic rules regarding:

- Rules regarding legal capacity and guardianship
- Contract law (contract conclusion, power of attorney and invalidity
- Law on Purchase of movable property (right to purchase, contract and consumer rights)

- Law on Payment and Debt Instruments (Accounts receivable and promissory note law
- Property rights (including pledge, surety and other security rights)
- Real Estate Law
- Tort Law
- Family Law with Inheritance Law (special focus on property division and inheritance law issues)
- Intellectual Property Law
- Labor Law
- The Law of Business Organizations
- Market law (including Competition Law)
- Administrative law including Constitutional Law
- Procedural Law including bankruptcy, distress, general courts and administrative courts
- Criminal Law
- Insolvency Law (such as corporate restructuring and debt restructuring)
- European Union Law

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years.

Examination is based on attendance at the seminars/group exercises, the written tasks, and a written exam. A completed exercise can give extra points for the exam. Active attendance is required at all group exercises and seminars. Active attendance means that the student must have prepared the tasks and be prepared to participate in the discussions of them. In the group exercises, everyone in the group is responsible for the group's work. During the oral examination, each student must be able to give an account of the entire task and the entire solution.

Assessment criteria regarding the exercise tasks: - facts (correctness and relevance), - analysis, - language and - other formalities that emerge from course PM.

The course grade is based on the written assignments and the written exams. Detailed principles for course grading are stated in the course description.

Other requirements for final grade

Passed attendance (NÄR1 - 0 hp)

Passed attendance (NÄR2 - 0 hp)

Passed examination (TENA - 7,0 hp)

Passed examination (TENB - 7,0 hp)

Passed exercises (ÖVNA - 0,5 hp)

Passed exercises (ÖVNB- 0,5 hp)

The final grade for the course as a whole as well as for each part of the course is decided by the result of the examinations. Passed exercise may give extra points to the examination.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.
