Specific prerequisites

All courses, that are required for issuing the Degree of Bachelor and at least 60 credits of courses for second-cycle studies, must be fully completed. These 60 credits must include all courses in the program, relevant to the degree project, and a course in theory of science.

A course in scientific methodology shall be completely reported with a passing grade.

Examiner is responsible to evaluate special kind of competences.

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The student should:

- Be able to apply relevant knowledge and skills that has been acquired within the main field of study, to a given problem.
- Within given bounds, and with limited information, independently be able to analyse and discuss complex issues and be able to handle larger problems on an advanced level within the field of study.
- Reflect about, evaluate and critically review their own and others scientific results.
- Be able to document and present their own work with high demands on structure, formal requirements and language skills.
- Be able to identify needs for further research and be able to continuously develop their competence.

Course contents

The degree project should be a part of a deeper study within the program area and be on an advanced level in order to fulfill the requirements for a Masters of Science in Engineering degree/Master of Science degree. This means that the degree project normally should be carried out within the area that the student has been prepared for. If the student would like to carry out the degree project within a different area this should be approved by the director of undergraduate education.

Examination

- XUPP - Examination Question, 30.0 credits, grading scale: A, B, C, D, E, FX, F

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.
