Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The student should after the course be able to realize a practical/theoretical project within music communication and report the result. This implies to be able to:

- independently plan, execute and present a theoretical or practical task within music communication
- acquire and evaluate information applicable for carrying out the task
- choose a course of approach and define a plan for carrying out the task in a given resource budget
- write legible reports in English or Swedish that satisfy established norms as to structure, language and contents
- orally report a work with certain requirements of preparation, structure, style and time
- show increased knowledge and skills in a specific field in musical communication.

Course contents

Both course content and assessment are designed individually for each student. The student should primarily contact the course coordinator. The course can only be offered if the department has enough resources and skills in the current field.

Examination

- INL1 - Assignment, 9.0 credits, grading scale: P, F

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.
