Education cycle

Third cycle

Specific prerequisites

Eligibility for becoming a PhD student at KTH.

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The student should have acquired deepened knowledge in an area of risk and safety research that has been approved by the teacher.

Course contents

Individual reading and supervision.

Course literature

Selected by the examiner after consultation with the teacher and the student.

Examination

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years.

The examination has the form of an individual task that is reported either orally or in writing, depending on what the examiner decides.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.
