

FKF3060 Economics in Pulp and Papermaking 4.5 credits

Ekonomiska drivkrafter vid massa- och papperstillverkning

This is a translation of the Swedish, legally binding, course syllabus.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years

Establishment

Course syllabus for FKF3060 valid from Autumn 2009

Grading scale

undefined

Education cycle

Third cycle

Specific prerequisites

Some fundamental knowledge of pulp and papermaking processes area is necessary.

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The objective is to demonstrate the interplay between economy and technology and illustrate the use of different economic concepts and methods by using real cases.

Course contents

The course is a 3-day intensive lecture course, followed by a group project work.

Course literature

Handouts

Examination

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

Other requirements for final grade

Compulsory lectures + project (written and oral examination)

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.