

FMJ3123 Literature Survey 6.0 credits

Litteraturstudie

This is a translation of the Swedish, legally binding, course syllabus.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years

Establishment

Course syllabus for FMJ3123 valid from Spring 2015

Grading scale

Education cycle

Third cycle

Specific prerequisites

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The overall goal of the course is to gain experience in completing a more comprehensive literature survey in the field of student research project.

Course contents

Students supposed to read current available literature related to their PhD project. Results and conclusions should be presented in a written report. Scope of the report should reflect four working weeks. Students pass the course when the written report is approved by main supervisor and PA. The extent of the report should reflect four working weeks. Students become passed in the course, when the written report is passed of principal supervisor and PA

Examination

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

Approved report by main supervisor and PA and final presentation at a seminar (20-40 minutes)

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.