ML1099 Engineering Role 2.0 credits

Ingenjörsrollen

This is a translation of the Swedish, legally binding, course syllabus.

Establishment

Course syllabus for ML1099 valid from Autumn 2009

Grading scale

P, F

Education cycle

First cycle

Main field of study

Technology

Specific prerequisites

Language of instruction

The language of instruction is specified in the course offering information in the course catalogue.

Intended learning outcomes

The aim of the course is to, in a wide sense, inform and prepare students for different situation at work. The focus is on general issues.

After completing this course students are to:

- understand the importance of personal and professional development in different fields of technique
- be able to understand the own responsibility at work, and be able to put up aims and sub aims for work and personal development
- have got further training in presentation technique

Course contents

- Communication
- The engineer’s function in society, earlier, now and in the future
- Social responsibility, ethic

Examination

- ANN1 - Presence, Exercises, 2.0 credits, grading scale: P, F

Based on recommendation from KTH’s coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.
- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.